

CIRCULATING LEGAL KNOWLEDGE

Doctrine · Reception · Epistemic Asymmetry

INAUGURAL WORKSHOP

Reception | Transfer | Transplantation | Translation

How Does Foreign Legal Knowledge Travel into Chinese Law?

German and British Expert Advice in the Making of China's Labour Contract Law

DATE

TUE · 01 SEP 2026

TIME

19:30 · BEIJING

PRIMARY · VOOV MEETING

168-871-215

BACKUP ACCESS · ZOOM

ID 632 9568 9132 · PASSCODE 0926

SPEAKERS

Wolfgang Däubler

Emeritus Professor · University of Bremen

REASONED PROPOSALS · BEIJING 2006

His scholarship spans German and European labour law. Invited by China's then Ministry of Labour and Social Security, he joined three German colleagues in formulating reasoned proposals on the public consultation draft.

Alan C. Neal

Emeritus Professor · Warwick Law School

WRITTEN COMMENTS & TECHNICAL DISCUSSION · 2005-2006

His scholarship spans international and comparative labour law. He recalls preparing a structured document on an internal ministry draft for the June 2005 Beijing workshop and joining two days of technical, article-by-article discussion in Kunming in December 2006.

DISCUSSANTS

Chen Jingyuan

Assistant Professor · Renmin University of China Law School

Jamee K. Moudud

Professor of Economics · Sarah Lawrence College

Shen Jianfeng

Professor of Law · Central University of Finance and Economics

Xue Beibei

General Counsel · Wuhan Youchuhai Technology Co., Ltd.

Yan Dong

Professor · Beijing Foreign Studies University Law School

Yan Tian

Tenured Associate Professor & Director · PKU Institute of Labor Law and Social Security Law

WORKING LANGUAGE: ENGLISH

FACULTY HOST · YANGGUANG GAO

MODERATOR & CONVENOR · TONGTONG LI